Decisions based on fear.

We are bombarded constantly with negative news. Fear mongering messages dominate our social media. People are making decisions largely based on fear, especially women who are being pressured into abortion.

Panic and fear-based decisions might provide temporary relief from hardship, but they eventually lead to long-term regret and pain as is declared by so many men and women postabortion.

Today, with only one day left of pro-life month let us remember that this world needs love, and each of us can bring more love into the world by our small everyday actions towards those around us.

Please remember, with one act of love at a time, we can boldly declare that not only does love cast out fear, but love is stronger than even death itself.
